Mysuru, Sept. 23 (RK&DM)- The Mysuru City Corporation (MCC), with an objective of keeping the city clean and hygienic during Dasara, launched a three-day mega cleaning drive today across the city.

Mayor Shivakumar launched the drive by flagging off cleaning vehicles at Doddakere Maidan.

MCC will clear Construction and Demolition (C&D) waste (comprising building materials, debris and rubble resulting from construction or demolition of buildings and other civil structures), garbage and all other forms of waste, lying along the roads in all the 65 wards.

This apart, all storm water drains and Underground drainages across the city will be cleared of blockages and silt.

Also, roadside bushes and weeds will be removed and trees trimmed.

While C&D waste will be dumped at a MUDA identified site at Hanchya-Sathagalli, all other wastes will be dumped at Sewage Treatment Plant in Vidyaranyapuram.

A total of 65 JCBs (one each for a ward), 6 Dozers, 3 Hitachi machines and 80 Tippers and Tractors have been deployed for the mega cleaning drive.

Following a request by the Mayor and officials, the MCC Contractors have lent these vehicles to the MCC for free, with the Contractors sharing the total cost of the operational expenses. The MCC has extended manpower support for the drive, which is being carried out under the supervision of concerned Zonal Officers and Health Inspectors.

The mega drive will conclude on Sunday, on the eve of Dasara inauguration by President of India Droupadi Murmu.

Jumbo team to walk under dazzling lights from today

Forest Department to ensure sharp objects do not pierce elephant legs during night rehearsal

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (MTY & BCT)- After rigorous training for the Dasara elephants on the Jumboo Savari route with one of the elephants — most of the times Abhimanyu — carrying the Wooden Howdah, the elephant team will face one more test today: Walking under illuminated roads, amidst people, traffic and the usual sounds.

The Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC) obliged the Forest Department's request on illuminating the Jumboo Savari route to acclimatise the elephants to the bright lights on roadsides, overhead, poles and also trees. The idea is to make the elephants feel at home despite the dazzling lights all the way from the Palace to Bannimantap.

Relief to Yediyurappa as SC stays investigation

Yediyurappa

New Delhi, Sept. 23 (Agencies)- Days after the Lokayukta Police registered a case against former Karnataka Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa, his family members and at least two Government officials in connection with a corruption case, the Supreme Court this morning granted relief to the BJP leader and stayed the investigation.

The Apex Court Bench comprising Justices D.Y. Chandrachud and Hima Kohli issued a notice in response to a plea by Yediyurappa challenging an order of the Karnataka High Court that had restored a bribery complaint filed against him and others under the Prevention of Corruption Act.

Senior Advocates Siddharth Dave and Mukul Rohatgi appearing on behalf of Yediyurappa argued that the Prevention of Corruption Act (PC Act) requires prior sanction before conducting any inquiry, enquiry or investigation of offences relatable to recommendations made or decision taken by a public servant in discharge of official functions or duties.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Every now and then, life throws a curve ball and one finds oneself in a bind. Held in the vice-like grip of a problem that doesn't seem to resolve, one is at a loss for remedial measures. So, what do people do? Some rave and rant to everyone they come into contact with — friends, acquaintances, staff and sometimes even foes. This is when they should be doing the exact opposite; retreat into silence.

There is a little booklet in my collection of books. It is called Seeds of light and contains some gems from the Mother of Pondicherry. And she has this to say: "Whatever be the problem, if we remain truly quiet the solution will come." That is a quote that has stayed with me over the years.

This is not to say that you do nothing about the issue and just wait for it to go away. Maintaining silence at times like these and going over the problem in your head or on paper or with a trusted elder — one, not two for it will confound if you receive conflicting advice — will help you identify steps that can be taken. It could be seeking the solution of the right expert offline/online — medical, legal, business, education, and finance while also surrendering at the altar of the Divine — who moves everything in this Universe. You can make an error of judgement with humans but the Divine is not going to let you down if your cause is just and your plea is heartfelt.

There is a purpose for your pain, which is to strengthen you for the task ahead or to prepare you for a higher calling. As The Mother says in another context, "Don't foresee difficulties. It does not help to surmount them and helps them to come. Doubt is a poison that drop by drop corrodes the soul."

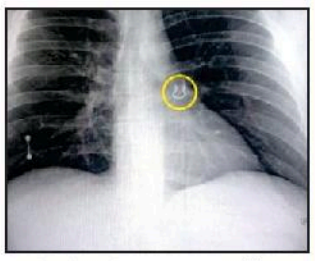
Lost nose stud found stuck in lung



Cincinnati: A 35-year-old man from Cincinnati was recently shocked to learn that the nose piercings he had lost five years ago had got stuck in one of his lungs.

Joey Lykins, a piercing enthusiast, woke up in the middle of the night with a terrible cough. It felt like something was blocking his airways and he coughed until his back started to hurt. He felt like he couldn't breathe and began to suspect that he had pneumonia or some other serious respiratory condition. Lykins went to the hospital for an examination the next day and the X-ray revealed something unusual in the upper lobe of his left lung. The doctor showed him the scan and the small, twisted object left him flabbergasted. It was his nose stud that he had lost five years ago and he never expected to find it in his lung.

Man earns by admitting to strangers' driving offences

Balearic Islands: Spanish authorities recently arrested a man who had apparently admitted to the driving offenses of nearly 100 people for money, in order to keep their record clean.

The Civil Guard of the Balearic Islands in Spain announced that it has discovered an Armenian man who was advertising a rather unusual service online. The unnamed man was offering to take the blame for strangers' driving offenses and help them keep their records clean in order to retain their driving licenses and avoid paying fines.

Of course, he charged money for his service – between 75 and 200 euros per point deducted from his own driving license – and business was booming.

Frequent power cuts in Srirampura 2nd Stage

Sir,

This is to bring to the notice of CESC authorities concerned about frequent power cuts in our area, Srirampura 2nd Stage (in and around Devayyanahundi). We have been observing frequent power cuts within any given day since June-July. During July-August we thought this might be due to very heavy rains and subsequent activities of tree trimming to avoid contact with live wires. But this issue is continuing even today.

Concerned CESC authorities need to take necessary measures to avoid such frequent power cuts as this is causing huge inconvenience to all classes of people like commercial businesses /home-makers/students/ work from home professionals.

Her latest song "Ra..Ra... Rukkamma' from Sudeep-starrer 'Vikrant Rona' has reached almost every household in Karnataka and her performance is bound to attract thousands of spectators.

After the performance of Sunidhi, there will be a fashion show and singer Supriya Ram will perform with an exclusive women's band.

Rs. 1.50 crore as star fee

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (SBD&BCT)- Organising Dasara cultural events to pull crowds for events like Yuva Dasara is an expensive proposition. This year, the fee charged by star performers will amount to Rs. 1.50 crore, said sources.

Though a detailed fee list has not been publicised, sources said that actor 'Kichcha' Sudeep is not charging any fee for his special appearance. "We will release a detailed accounting of expenses incurred for Yuva Dasara after the completion of the festival," said SP R. Chethan, Special Officer for Yuva Dasara.

"Many artistes and stars have been contacted directly while some have been contacted through their agents and publicity agencies. We have got a list of the fee charged by them in earlier events and we have finalised the prices without any excess expenditure," he said. But another source admitted that singer Sunidhi Chauhan got the lion's share in the fee for star performers.

'Appu Namana'

From Sept. 28 till the last day, the teams that have given stellar performances in the ongoing Yuva Sambhrama at Manasagangothri Open Air Theatre will perform at the first event of Yuva Dasara each day and as decided earlier, one day of Yuva Dasara (Sept. 28) will be exclusively dedicated for Dr. Puneeth Rajkumar as 'Appu Namana'.

Puneeth Rajkumar

On that day, noted singers Gurukiran, Vijay Prakash and Kunal Ganjawala will perform the songs they had sung for Puneeth Rajkumar movies. Local artistes will also perform attractive dance forms on the same evening.

Dialectics on Basic Instinct

Kama, Kamasutra and Khajuraho!

Reading about sex-related offences committed by men in our daily newspapers and viewing them with news reports and in panel discussions on TV, I am left wondering what could be the cause for such crimes and how could it be checked if not completely curbed.

In simple words, the cause could be the basic instinct of human beings which is sex. Nature or God must have provided it for the purpose of propagation of species. According to science, the male hormone known as testosterone triggers sexual urge in men. Likewise, it is the hormone known as progesterone that triggers desire for sex in women. While it is produced in testicles for men, for women it is in the ovary. Let it be.

Kushwant Singh, the famous author and journalist, was known for his dirty jokes, meaning sex-related ones. While writing in the now defunct The Illustrated Weekly of India, he had mentioned about masturbation as a way to get over the compulsive urge of this basic instinct. It is said that in British Bombay, the port city, hundreds of sex-starved shippys, sailors, would land in city daily and to restrain them from becoming a social nuisance and rapists, the authorities wisely opened licensed brothels at a place known as Falkland road, a name unwittingly closer to the business conducted there.

As a civilised society, we have laws in our country, to deter and punish those who commit sex-related offences, like the IPC, POCSO... etc. However, like other offences — physical attack, murder, theft, dacoity, cheating, embezzlement etc. — the sexual offence also would take place in spite of the laws. After all, these human misconducts and perversion, specially sex and alcohol, are as old as hills.

Even those who are under the vow of celibacy as priests or monks succumb to the temptation of sex. The only way to deal with this offence is to catch the criminal and punish him as per law of the land. The problem is when the law-enforcing authority and the judges who deliver justice fail in their duties (responsibility) or when they become lax, for whatever reason.

Konarak Sun Temple

Be that as it may, I am prompted to indulge in this subject sex as I was reading a highly readable book on Hinduism "The Great Hindu Civilisation" by Pavan K. Varma. It deals at length about Hinduism over the past 10,000 years, its vedic sutras and mantras and all that proceeded from Vedas like different schools of thought, philosophy (Advaita, Vishishtadvaita and Dvaita). It discusses Sankya School initiated by sage Kapila who propounded the cosmic duality of the universe consisting of Purusha and Prakriti (male and female) which represents, plainly, the 'potentiality of nature.' Thus the universe evolves. Man is, of course, part of it with five cognitive organs — taste, touch, sight, sound and smell. Now let me come to the subject under my reflection — sex.

An important institution or philosophy in Hindu life was of the four Purusharthas, the goals of life. They were Dharma, Artha, Kama and Moksha. Dharma may be interpreted as righteous conduct in our day-to-day life, "duty, virtue, goodness, right action, piety, law and action." It is not per chance that Hinduism has Dharmashastra (600-300 BCE), Dharmasutra (200-900 BCE), even the famous name in the great epic Mahabharata, Dharmaraya! Our former Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee too spoke of Dharma, Raja Dharma but forgot to mention the Praja Dharma in Democracy. Let it pass. To revert to Dharma, it is sukshma, elusive and subtle.

What is Artha? Pursuit of material well-being — tangible. Earning wealth, because "poverty is living death."

Then, the next Purushartha is Kama, desire. Philosophically, it was an attempt to "integrate desire and the sexual urge (within a spiritual framework!)". In fact, it is eroticism as its natural attribute. Brihadaranyaka Upanishad seems sensually descriptive about sex act, copulation, comparing it metaphorically to a sacrificial fire (havana). Modesty restrains me from sharing it here.

Is it, therefore, surprising that major Gods in Hindu faith have all got consorts? These Gods are honest, they are not hypocrites, not celebates as in some faiths where some are found violating the vow of celibacy and being caught by the long arm of the law.

But let me move on with this serenade of sex. Kama in the Purushartha may mean being a householder, a good family man. To be that, the divinity Kama must play his role. Bestower of love. Atharva veda exalts love in a hymn as supreme God and creator. Well, when love works between man and woman, there is creation — baby! So Kama, equal to Roman Cupid, has an important role in taking us to Moksha, heaven or ultimate liberation — to that ultimate goal of Purushartha. As the father so the son — Kama is the son of Vishnu and Lakshmi — just for information on parents! Did you get me Steve?

According to Hindu mythology, Kama's most important role was in distracting Shiva from his deep meditation by arousing in him amorous thoughts about Shiva's wife Parvati. He succeeds of course and it is another story. However, I was enthralled reading in Pavan Varma's book the description of the impact of Kama on everything around him as he made his way to Shiva as described by Kalidasa in his Ramacharitmanas. "As Kama approached (Shiva) the scriptures hid in the crevices of the mountains; all creations — animate and inanimate — awakened to his touch; rivers swelled to reach the ocean; rivulets, ponds, creeks sought to merge with each other; trees bent towards each other; birds and animals swayed under his magic; even the Sanyasis and Yogis could not resist his influence." Could not resist the sexual urge, the basic instinct. Today we read and hear about many who cannot resist the influence of God Kama going to jail! Let us be warned!!

Alas, though mind his strong, the flesh is weak. In mythology we have the case of Sage Vishwamitra. Menaka was the heavenly seductive beauty. When Vishwamitra saw Menaka, her beauty incited his lust and passion so much he was impatient to cohabit and enter her.

Menaka had succeeded in breaking his meditation as in the case of Shiva whose meditation was broken by Kama. Vishwamitra, being a Sage, was supposed to observe celibacy but his lust so overpowered him, he created the veil of mist around, so that nobody could see them making love. Story continues but enough for this subject of sex and its effect on people.

And finally, the most widely known and famous treatise on the art of love is Vatsyayana's Kamasutra, reduced to stone relief, including some in coital postures, at Khajuraho temples and in the Sun Temple at Konarak, Puri, Odisha. Pavan Varma writes that "Kama is, therefore, not a sanction for hedonism. It is not a licence for uncontrolled licentiousness. The genius of Hindu vision lay in the inclusion of both the material and the sensual among the four highest goals of life." They are, as mentioned earlier, Dharma, Artha, Kama and Moksha. Follow this path to reach the ultimate goal of life — Moksha.

Jumbo team to walk under dazzling lights

Accordingly, the CESC has completed the illumination of the route and today evening, the elephants will be taken on the routine walk. The responsibility of the Department in accomplishing the task is huge as the staff has to ensure nothing goes wrong during the walk.

This time, the Vijayadashami procession will begin at 5.40 pm and it will be dark by the time the procession reaches even the halfway mark. The procession, to be witnessed by lakhs of people will pass through K.R. Circle, Sayyaji Rao Road, Ayurveda College Circle, New Sayyaji Rao Road, Bamboo Bazaar and Moulana Abul Kalam Azad Circle (Highway Circle) to reach Bannimantap.

Sharp objects to be removed

On its part, the Forest Department must ensure that nails, pins and sharp objects do not pierce the jumbo legs during the walk. The usual practice of a high-powered magnetic device that is fitted into a jeep to move in front of Dasara elephants as they rehearse will have to be followed with diligence. The magnetic device clears the paths of sharp objects like nails, pins and metal pieces that may cause injury.

As the illumination begins at 7 pm every day and goes on till 10.30 pm, the elephant walk rehearsal too will begin at 7 pm for acclimatisation. "The rehearsals will go on till a day before the Ayudha Puja and we have enough time for the jumbos to prepare for the big day. From today, we will have Abhaya teams from Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) and personnel from CESC ahead of the elephant team," Deputy Conservator of Forests (Wildlife) Dr. V. Karikalan told Star of Mysore.

While the MCC Abhaya team will ensure that the rehearsal route is clean for the elephants to walk, the CESC team will ensure that the height of the illuminated poles overhead is more than the height of the elephant carrying the Wooden Ambari, he added.

Deendayal Upadhyaya Backward Classes Hostel for 1,000 students in city soon

Minister Kota Srinivasa Poojary distributes various facilities to beneficiaries at Modi Yug Utsav

Mysuru, Sept.23 (RKB&TRR)- Minister for Backward Classes and Social Welfare Kota Srinivasa Poojary has said that a Deendayal Upadhyaya Hostel to accommodate 1,000 Backward Classes students will come up in Mysuru shortly.

The Minister made this announcement after inaugurating the 2nd day programme of the 9- day Modi Yug Utsav organised by K.R. MLA S.A. Ramdas at Sri Ramalingeshwara Park in Vidyaranyapuram here on Sunday.

"Karnataka has 2,239 BCM hostels, 1,860 SC/ST hostels and 830 residential hostels. But still students are facing shortage of hostels. Because of this, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai has directed to give additional 25 per cent attendance. The Government has come forward to provide hostel facilities for more than 1,000 students in the name of Deendayal Upadhyaya. In the absence of own buildings, it has been decided to start hostels in rented buildings," added Kota Srinivasa Poojary.

Praising the development works of MLA Ramdas, the Minister said this programme is organised to fulfill the wishes of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's Constitution which states that the facilities given by the Governments must reach the last person of the society.

"There was a time when Indians used to be neglected in foreign countries. But things have changed now and Indians are being welcomed everywhere because of PM Modi's work. India is changing and we are witnessing changes in politics too. But the society needs to change and our practices should also change. We should be able to see children of the poor also becoming doctors and engineers. In this backdrop, the works of Ramdas are praiseworthy and his pro-people works are worth emulating for all the 224 legislators of the State," he observed.

"The efforts of Ramdas in implementing Prime Minister's welfare programmes for the poor, women and other weaker sections are commendable," the Minister concluded.

Speaking on the occasion, MLA Ramdas said that during the Modi Yug Utsav we intend to provide training and employment to the needy by registering their names. We also intend to construct a big Children's Library at a cost of Rs.4 crore, he added.

Minister Kota Srinivasa Poojary distributed various facilities under SC/ST welfare programmes to the beneficiaries on the occasion.

Malathi, District Officer of Backward Classes Welfare Dept. G.R. Mahesh and others were present.

Former MLA M.K. Somashekar leads protest demanding filling of potholes

Mysuru, Sept.23 (RKB&TRR)- Alleging that BJP Ministers and MLAs are chanting the name of PM Modi and wasting time even as the citizens are cursing the State Government for the poor quality of road works, a group of activists, led by former K.R. Constituency MLA M.K. Somashekar, staged a protest at Vinaya Marga in Siddarthanagar here on Tuesday.

"Roads are full of potholes and the public are facing lot of hardships. Though people have protested many times, BJP leaders are busy chanting Modi's name and are completely ignoring the problems faced by the tax-payers," the protestors alleged and shouted slogans against the BJP Government.

There are many potholes on Vinaya Marga road and a protest was held three months ago demanding filling of these potholes. Following this, potholes were filled in a hurry and within three months, the road is back to normal with the same potholes. The roads were repaired spending Rs.4 crore. But this 40 per cent commission road work is only a waste of public money and it has not reduced the miseries of common man in any way," alleged the protestors.

Ex-Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath, former Deputy Mayor Sridhar, Block Congress President G. Somashekar, Bhaskar L. Gowda, Sridhar, Pradeep Kumar, Prathidwani Prasad and others participated in the protest.

Vishwakarma Jayanti must be celebrated by every community: Former Mayor

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (TRR)- "Vishwakarma created the world and the celebration of Vishwakarma Jayanti should not be limited to just one community, but should be celebrated by all communities," opined former Mayor Sandesh Swamy.

He was speaking at a function organised jointly by Jeevadhara Blood Bank and Devaraja Mohalla Nagarika Vedike to celebrate Vishwakarma Jayanti on Tuesday.

Many veteran artisans who are practicing and continuing sculpture as a profession for the last 35 years were felicitated on the occasion. The sculptors who were felicitated are M.S. Somachar, Keshvamurthy, S.N. Manjachar, Siddappa, Ravishankar, Anilkumar, Nagendra, Satishmurthy, Vasantkumar and Anand.

District Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Madikere Gopal who spoke on the occasion pointed out that Vishwakarma community has designed art, ammunitions, weapons and machineries. "The credit of creating Pushpaka Vimana at a time when there was no concept of aeroplane should go to the Vishwakarmas. The contribution of the community to the nation building is immense," he observed.

Stating that both Bramha and Vishwakarma are creators, Gopal said there is a practice in the society to compare Vishwakarmas to Bramha. Those who know all the 64 arts are called as Vishwakarmas. In Sanskrit, Vishwakarma means one who can achieve everything. Vishwakarma community has a rich tradition of mythology and history, he opined.

Vishwakarma community leader Rishi Vishwakarma appealed the Government to give monthly pensions to artisans of the community, who are solely depending on the community's profession for their livelihood, once they attain 60 years of age. The Government should provide 2 acres land to the Vishwakarma community and Rs.3 crore to build Vishwakarma Community Bhavan, he concluded.

Corporator S. Ramani, Jeevadhara Blood Bank Director Girish, Archakara Sangha President Krishnamurthy, Vishwakarma Jayanthotsava Samithi President O. Moganachar, Vishwakarma Development Board Director Sinduvalli Lokesh and others were present on the occasion.

Folk dances mesmerise Yuva Sambhrama audience

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (MK&BCT)- Last evening's performances at Yuva Sambhrama centred around folk art and the 75th year of Independence. This apart, memories of Dr. Puneeth Rajkumar too were brought alive on stage by performers.

But the main attraction for the evening at Manasagangothri Open Air Theatre was the eye-catching folk art performance by the teams from Kuvempu Institute of Kannada Studies and from Hunsur's Gavadagere Government PU College. Dancers performed many folk forms including puja kunitha, dollu kunitha, kolu kunitha, veeragase and garudi gombe.

The folk performances left the audience spellbound and they were glued to the ground and even danced along with the performers. Likewise, performances from Bishop Norman Carr Sargent College of Commerce and Business Management, Periyapatna BGS First Grade College, JSS B.Ed. College Suttur, Sathanur PU College Kanakapura, performed to the themes that focussed on the Kannada language, soil, water and culture.

Performing to the theme of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, students of T. Narasipur Government PU College displayed the heroic acts of the soldiers on the borders and hoisted the national flag and sang 'har ghar tiranga'.

Specially abled children from Maithri Charitable Trust performed 'Appu dance' that earned the appreciation of the audience. Though challenged physically, they proved that they are second to none and conveyed the message of the need to provide equal opportunities for all, without an element of sympathy.

Students of Malavalli Kirugavalu Government PU College, AET Institute of Nursing Science, Mandya, Mysore Institute of Commerce and Arts, Mahatma Gandhi B.Ed. College, Shastri Composite PU College danced to the numbers that conveyed women's empowerment, national integrity and environmental awareness.

A group of actors from the Kannada film industry came on stage and entertained the audience. They included Pannaghabharana, son of noted director T.S. Nagabharana, 'Hondisi Bareyiri' actors Praveen, Bhavana Rao, Srihari, Archana Jois and director Jagannath. They also released the teaser of 'Hondisi Bareyiri'.

Relief to Yediyurappa as SC stays investigation

The Lokayukta Police had filed the case against Yediyurappa and others after receiving permission from the Karnataka HC. Reports said that the Supreme Court also stayed further proceedings as far as the petitioner was concerned.

The SC notice has been issued to social activist T.J. Abraham on the BJP leader's plea challenging the HC order. The corruption case deals with the award of a contract from the Bangalore Development Authority (BDA).

Yediyurappa had moved the Supreme Court against the HC order that restored a private complaint against him and his family members, including his son B.Y. Vijayendra, for allegedly taking a bribe of Rs. 12.5 crore to secure a project for Ramalingam Construction Company Private Limited from the BDA.

The HC's order issued on Sept. 7 came in response to a plea by Abraham against the lower court's order dismissing his private complaint. The social activist had alleged in his complaint that the BDA had given a contract to Ramalingam Construction Company Pvt. Ltd., owned by Chandrakant Ramalingam, as a favour for receiving bribes. The case concerns the award of tender for the construction of BDA apartments at Konadasapura in Bidarahalli in the State capital.

WORD OF THE DAY

Perspicacious

Pronunciation: per-spuh-KAY-shus.
Meaning: Perspicacious is a formal word that means "possessing acute mental vision or discernment." Someone who is perspicacious has a keen ability to notice and understand things that are difficult or not obvious.
Origin: Some perspective on perspicacious: the word combines the Latin perspicac- (from perspicax meaning "clear-sighted," which in turn comes from perspicere, "to see through") with the common English adjective suffix -ious. The result is a somewhat uncommon word used to describe someone (such as a reader or observer) or something (such as an essay or analysis) displaying the perception and understanding of subtleties others tend to miss, such as the distinctions between the words perspicacious, shrewd, sagacious, and astute—something our synonym chooser can help with.
Example: "Some of the film's performances are merely peculiar and others merely apt, but [actor Don] Cheadle is thrilling, with coiled strength and a perspicacious gaze that seems to realize ideas in motion." — Richard Brody

THE ODD WORD

Panglossian
Overly optimistic.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

A penny saved is a penny earned

Meaning: The phrase 'A penny saved is a penny earned' means that it is as useful to save money that you already have as it is to earn more.
Origin: Almost everyone has heard of this famous expression. Unlike many others, the origin of the idiom 'A penny saved is a penny earned' is well known – it comes from Benjamin Franklin's book, Poor Richard's Almanack. Interestingly, this successful series of books which was filled with advice, household hints, and amusing puzzles, also contained numerous witty phrases such as the one in question; like it, many of them are still in use today.
Example: "I'm going to give you $20, but I want you to put it in the bank; a penny saved is a penny earned!"

QUOTE BOX

Tough times call for tough choices and pinching every penny.
—John Hickenlooper
